There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies and by constantly railing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Half's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. $432,063.28 To meet the expenditures called for by their estimates a tax of nine mills on the last city list will be required, said list being $12,823,172.

In view of recent increases in local taxation for town purposes, your Committee have made every effort to reduce the rate of city taxation and the above estimates are deemed to be such as will fully and fairly meet the expenses of economical administration and of such permanent improvements as are at this time absolutely necessary.

In addition to the above estimated expenses for ordinary purposes of the Government, the Committee on Finance have been requested by petition, committee reports, etc., to bring before the next annual meeting for its action, estimates of the cost of the following exactly the state of the cost of the following exactly the state of the cost of the following exactly the state of the cost of the following exactly the state of the cost of the following exactly the state of the cost of the following exactly the state of the cost of the following exactly the state of the cost of the following exactly the state of the cost of the following the state of the cost of the cost of the cost of the following the state of the cost of th penditures and improvements prayed for, to wit:

The sum of these estimates is equal to about two mills on the grand list. Your Committee recommend that the warning for the next annual city meeting include the last named estimates and a call for action thereon.

Your Committee further recommend the adoption by the Court of Common Council of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the report and estimates of the Committee on Finance be accepted and approved; that the Clerk cause the same to be published, as required by the amended charter, and that the Mayor, or, in his absence, the Senior Alderman present, be directed hat the Mayor, or, in his absence, the enior Alderman present, be directed n behalf of the Court of Common ouncil to submit the estimates emraced in this report to the next city necting to be held on the first Monday of June next, and to recommend that tax of nine mills be laid on the last erfected grand list of the city.

They see him who gaze from the shore!

He looks to the beacon that looms from the reef.

To the rock that is under its lee.

As he drifts on the blast, like a windwafted leaf.

O'er the gulfs of the desolate sea.

Thus drifting afar to the dim-vanited Thus drifting afar to the dim-vanited caves.

Where life and its ventures are laid, the dreamers who gaze while we battle the waves.

May see us in sunshine or shade; Yet true to our course, though the shadows grow dark.

We'll trim our broad sall as before. And stand by the rudder that governs the bark.

Nor ask how we look from the shore—Oliver Wendall Holmes.

THE PASSIONATE SHEPHERD.

Come live with me, and be my Love, And we will all the pleasures prove That hill and valley, dale and field Or woods or steepy mountains yield And we will sit upon the rocks And see the shepherd feed his floo By shallow rivers, to whose falls Meledious birds sing madrigals.

And I will make thee beds of roses And a thousand fragrant posies; A cap of flowers, and a kirtle Embroider'd all with leaves of myrtle. A gown made of the finest wool Which from our pretty lambs we pull; Fair-lined slippers for the cold. With buckles of the purest gold.

A belt of straw and tvy-buds With coral clasps and amber studs; And if these pleasures thee can move, Come live with me and be my Love. The shepherd swains shall dance and For thy delights each May morning:
If these delights thy mind may love,
Then live with me and be my Love,
—Marlowe.
